No. Pg. 1096, dated 2nd February 1899.

REGULATIONS FOR THE SUPERVISION SYSTEM.

For the more efficient working of the Supervision system in the cities, towns and villages in which it has been or may hereafter be introduced, the Government of Mysore, in exercise of the powers vested in them under Section 2, Sub-Section (ii). of the Epidemic Diseases Regulation, 1897, are pleased to prescribe the following Regulations, in supersession of those contained in Notification No. Pg. 556, dated 28th November 1898.

1. Section I.—Definitions.—The Supervision system shall, for the purpose of these Regulations, mean an initial census of the city, town or village, and the daily inspection subsequently by Supervisors of each house in any city, town or village into which the said system has been or may hereafter be introduced by the Plague Commissioner by Notification in the Gazette for the purpose of ascertaining each case of sickness or death therein, each arrival thereat, and each departure therefrom.

2. For the purposes of this system, the city, town or village shall be divided into Circles which shall be again subdivided into Blocks.

Every Officer in charge of a Circle shall be called a "Superintendent," of a Block a "Supervisor."

Note.—In the Cities of Bangalore and Mysore, Superintendent shall include a Ward Officer or Assistant Ward Officer.

3. The term Supervision Officer includes the Chief Plague Officer in the Cities of Bangalore and Mysore and such officer as the Deputy Commissioner of the district may appoint in other towns and villages to be the Chief Controlling Officer for the purpose of this system.

4. A Block shall ordinarily consist of 100 to 200 houses, but this number is liable to variation according to the situation of the houses.

Section II.—In any city, town or village into which this system has been or may hereafter be introduced, all houses shall be numbered serially, every street having its own series. The number shall be written in bold figures on the entrance of the house.

Section III.—Every Block shall have a book, and every house a separate page in the book.

Section IV.—Every Supervisor and every Enumerator, who may be appointed for the purpose of the initial census shall be furnished with a printed authority which shall state his name, caste, and the Block for which he is appointed. He shall produce this whenever his identity or authority is questioned.

Section V.—On a day and hour to be notified by the President of the Municipal Commission in the Cities of Bangalore and Mysore, and by the Deputy Commissioner of the district in other towns and villages, a census of the whole city, town or village into which this system has been or may be hereafter introduced, shall be taken.

Section VI.—Previous to that date a printed list, being an exact copy of the Block page, shall be supplied to every house-owner or head of the family, with a request to fill in the same with correct particulars as to name, age, sex, occupation, whether inoculated or not, and, if inoculated, whether once or twice inoculated, of all persons living in the house.

The house-owner or head of the family shall, on the said date, deliver to the Supervisor or Enumerator the said printed list filled in with the abovementioned particulars and duly signed by him.

Section VII.—For the purposes of the said Census, the Supervisors or Enumerators shall have power to visit each house and ascertain the number, names, age, sex, caste, occupation and other particulars of its occupants; and every inmate of each house shall be bound to answer truly the questions of such Supervisor or Enumerator put for the purpose of the above enquiry.

Provided that where such a course is opposed to the caste, usage or social customs of any particular class of persons, it shall not be compulsory for the members of such class to declare the names of the women of their family.

Section VIII.—Supervision Officers, Superintendents and Supervisors shall, for the purposes of this system, have power to daily visit each house in their Circles or Blocks and, either by personal inspection, if necessary, or by questioning the inmates of such house, to ascertain each case of sickness or death, and its cause, that may have occurred therein, and each new arrival thereat, and the place from whence such arrival came, and each new departure therefrom, and the place of destination of such departure.

Provided that when personal inspection is deemed necessary, inspection of females, in a household of which the females are "Gosha," shall only be made by females.

Section IX.—It shall be the duty of every householder to afford every facility to such Supervision Officer, Superintendent or Supervisor to ascertain the above information; and every inmate of a house so visited by a Supervision Officer, Superintendent or Supervisor shall be bound to answer truly any question such Officer, Superintendent or Supervisor may ask for the purpose of the above enquiry.

Section X.—It shall be in the power of a Supervision Officer, Superintendent or Supervisor to daily demand and see the observation notice of all arrivals from an infected area, for ten days after their arrival, and to see that the initials of the Medical Officer under whose observation such arrival is, have been affixed each day to such notice, and in default of finding such initials, to send for and take the explanation of such arrival for the default; and it shall be the duty of all such arrivals to produce such observation notice and to answer truly all questions concerning it which such Supervision Officer, Superintendent or Supervisor shall put.

Section XI.—Any arrival refusing or failing on demand of such Supervision Officer, Superintendent or Supervisor to produce such observation notice, shall be liable to be removed to such detention shed or camp as the Supervision Officer may direct and to remain there till the completion of his ten days' observation.

Section XII.—In any city, town or village into which the Supervision system has been or may hereafter be introduced, no person shall change his residence from one house to another in such city town or village, without a permit from his Supervision Officer or Superintendent.

Section XIII.—Any person disobeying or contravening or refusing to submit himself to, any of the above Regulations, or obstructing any authority or officer appointed under competent authority to carry out any of the above Regulations in the discharge of his duties as such authority or officer, shall be deemed to have committed an offence under Section 188 of the Indian Penal Code, and shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to six months, or fine which may extend to Rs. 1,000, or both.
